

Courtrai Road, SE23 (4 bedroom House)

£800,000

property description

CASH BUYERS ONLY! This 1930's 4 bedroom end of terrace family home offers plenty of potential but requires extensive updating throughout. The house sits on a large plot of land and is set back from the street with off street parking and a front garden. The house also benefits from a integrated garage, a large private rear garden spanning over 60ft in length, two reception rooms, a kitchen breakfast room, family bathroom and potential to extend into the loft (Subject to planning consent). Courtrai Road is located between Honor Oak Park and Crofton Park, benefitting from the amenities both areas have to offer as well as both train lines. The area is very popular among young families, it is a quiet residential street made up of similar family homes, close to some very good schools such as Stillness School. The local train stations are very convenient with Honor Oak Park offering regular services to London Bridge and Overground connections and Crofton Park offering services to Blackfrairs and Victoria. The areas amenities include an array of excellent cafes, bars and restaurants a...
